DILBERT™

If you work in an office, chances are you know (or are) a Dilbert, Wally, Alice, or—heaven forbid—a Pointy-Haired Boss. Scott Adams's immediately recognizable characters from his phenomenally popular comic strip Dilbert scream "It's you!" at cubicle dwellers everywhere, whether through the Boss's lame attempts at buzz-speak or Dilbert's detached amusement at the absurdity surrounding him. Each of these 2012 calendars offers a year of relatable hilarity, no matter which character you work next to.

- More than 11.5 million Dilbert calendars have been sold.
- Dilbert appears in more than 2,000 newspapers in 70 countries and is read by more than 150 million people each day.
- After the Dilbert 2.0 deluxe collector's edition in 2008, AMP published the 14 Years of Loyal Service in a Fabric-Covered Box cartoon collection in October 2009.

DAY-TO-DAY

Don't risk missing a day of Dilbert. Get your fix with this best-selling Dilbert calendar format featuring a color cartoon each day.

THE ARGYLE SWEATER

Scott Hilburn's The Argyle Sweater is syndicated in the Washington Post, the Los Angeles Times, the Calgary Herald, and—with more than 130 online clients—everywhere in between. Inside the popular, colorful cartoon, readers find the to-do lists of celebrities, the secret lives of animals, Care Bears who don't care at all, hyenas who don't feel like laughing, pioneers, cavemen, cowboys, and mad scientists. Capturing Hilburn's visceral talent and bold pen stroke, The Argyle Sweater calendars bring it all together. They present readers with the puns (both verbal and visual), cerebral wit, and twists on popular culture that are the hallmarks of this hilarious cartoon, with a format for the office, dorm, kitchen, and just about anywhere else.

- The Argyle Sweater boasts placement in 175 newspapers.
- In addition to best-selling calendars and books, more than 1 million Argyle Sweater greeting cards have been sold.

DAY-TO-DAY

Featuring a different, full-color panel each day, this calendar gives readers The Argyle Sweater in all its strange, hilarious glory. Unholy mackerel, the Bluetooth fairy (though, trust us, you don't want a visit from her), elephant Smurf, really evil pigeons, and many other odd inhabitants are all stuffed inside. A chicken séance, a gastropod wedding shower, and many other unusual but funny happenings also abound as readers laugh through the year courtesy of The Argyle Sweater.

SHELLY REEVES SMITH

Even if we've never been to the places that watercolorist Shelly Reeves Smith portrays in her paintings, the comfortable elements she artfully includes makes us feel right at home. From a cozy reading nook filled with feathery pillows to a breezy patio where bees bumble from flower to flower, her work evokes a vivid sense of place that blurs the line between memory and imagination. The thoughtful addition of scripture verse or inspirational message completes the scene.

- Shelly Reeves Smith has sold more than 800,000 calendars and a million books.
- Her art has appeared on stationery, gifts, calendars, and award-winning cookbooks.
- Goodness Gracious, which Shelly created with author Roxie Kelley, received the Gourmand Cookbook Award for Best Designed Illustrated Cookbook.
- She has illustrated seven cookbooks published by AMP.

SHERRI BUCK BALDWIN

Sherri Buck Baldwin uses colored pencils, watercolors, and pastels to achieve the rich layering of colors that gives her work its signature depth and nuance. Her subjects are well served by her technique, which produces just right the dappled greens of delicate herbs and the subtle variations in the feathers of colorful backyard birds. The intricacies of Sherri's art once again are highlighted in her stunning calendars.

- Sherri Buck Baldwin has published more than fifty calendars and 400 greeting cards during her career of more than twenty years.

WALL

Herbs are as beautiful as they are tasty, especially when painted by Sherri Buck Baldwin. She illustrates them prepared in delicious dishes and filling luminous jars and mossy pots in this cheerful monthly wall calendar.

JOHN SLOANE

JOHN SLOANE

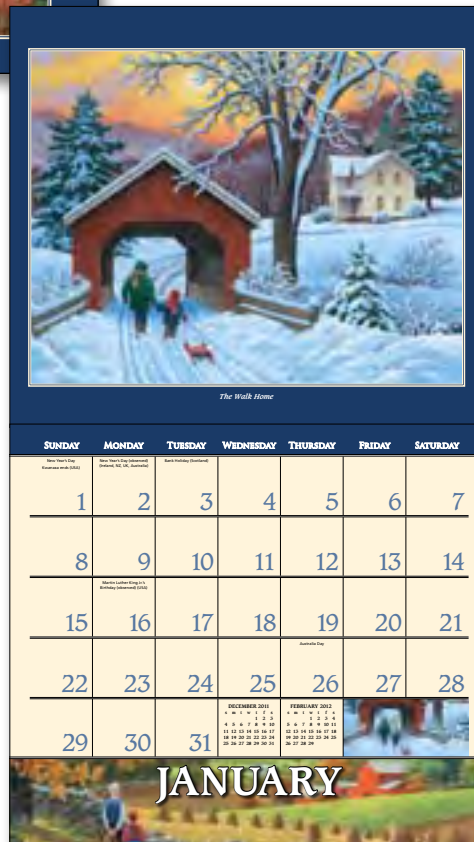

John Sloane paints memories. The subjects of his paintings are farmhouses and buggies, country lanes and churches, barns and bonneted girls, but they're filtered through an artist's lens that fixes them in a distant but familiar time. In his twenty-sixth wall calendar, his monthly planner, and his new mini wall calendar, John shares his most recent paintings from the more than 300 he has created. Each one is a reminder of simpler times for those lucky enough to have experienced them and a lovely trip into imagination for the rest.

- This is John Sloane's twenty-sixth wall calendar.
- Besides calendars, John's art appears on puzzles, needle art, greeting cards, prints, and gifts.

WALL

The exquisite detail packed by John Sloane into each of the twelve paintings included in this monthly wall calendar inspires nostalgia for times when haystacks dotted fields and autumn meant apples ready to be pressed into cider.

SUEELLEN ROSS

SUEELLEN ROSS

Sueellen Ross captures more than the images of the cats and dogs in her stunning portraits. What comes through just as clearly is the personality of each one. The soulful eyes, the playful lilt, the knowing expression, recreated with watercolor, ink, and colored pencil, combine to communicate the essence of her subjects far beyond what's expected from the individual media. She presents her lifelike art in six beautiful 2012 calendars.

DAN DiPAOLO

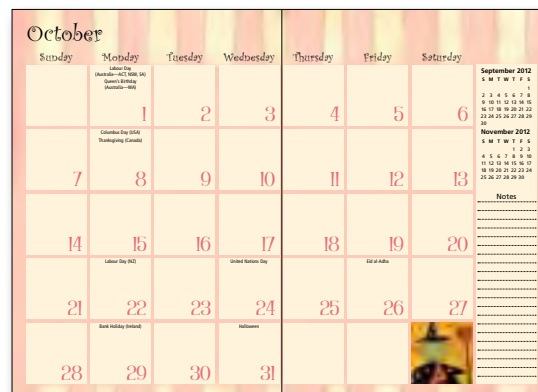

A small, quiet farmstead in Burlington, Wisconsin, is an unexpected setting for the abundance of creative activity that bustles out of it. Here, Dan DiPaolo creates his signature artwork that is used on his popular calendars, textiles, stationery, and other household and decorative items. From chicks (feathered and otherwise) to chefs, java jiving cups to handbags and heels, his subjects vary greatly, but all retain a playful sense of whimsy rendered with a winning blend of country charm and easy sophistication.

Lefties unite! Thousands of famous left-handers have made their mark on the world, including Sir Paul McCartney, Mark Twain, Judy Garland, Neil Armstrong, and Babe Ruth. These two calendars honor these notable individuals with trivia, facts, quotes, and legends about left-handedness and left-handers.

- According to Scientific American, about 15 percent of the world population is left-handed.
- Being left-handed these days is encouraged and even embraced. Many everyday items have been redesigned for lefties, including watches, computer keypads and mice, kitchen utensils, and musical instruments.

DAY-TO-DAY

The eighteenth edition of this daily calendar features a little known fact, quote, bit of trivia, or anecdote about left-handedness or information about a famous left-handed person on each page. It also recognizes the birthdays of famous left-handed people.

WEEKLY PLANNER

This lefty-friendly calendar features planning pages on the left side of each weekly spread and binding on the right-hand side, instead of the traditional left-hand side, for easier use. The right sides of the spreads feature an interesting fact about left-handedness or trivia about a left-handed person.

WOMEN FOOD AND GOD

After three decades of studying, teaching, and writing about our compulsions with food, best-selling author Geneen Roth adds a powerful new dimension to her work in Women Food and God. She begins with her most basic concept: The way you eat is inseparable from your core beliefs about being alive. Your relationship with food is an exact mirror of your feelings about love, fear, anger, meaning, transformation, and, yes, even God. A timeless and seminal work, Women Food and God shows how going beyond the food and the feelings takes you deeper into realms of spirit and soul of the bright center of your own life.

- Geneen Roth is the author of nine books including her newest book, Lost and Found: Unexpected Revelations About Food and Money.
- Women Food and God has more than 1 million copies in print and has appeared on the New York Times Best Sellers List for more than 28 weeks.

DAY-TO-DAY

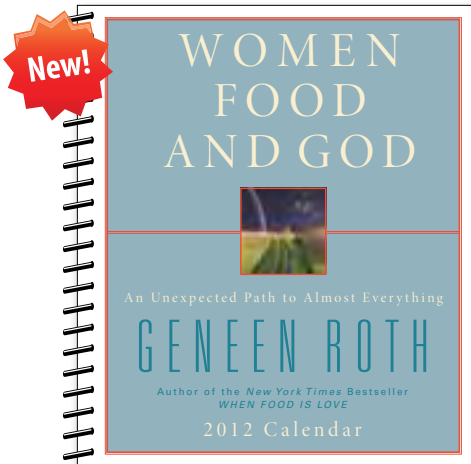

Geneen Roth's book is truly life altering. The daily excerpts featured in this calendar reinforce the book's message and offer support.

STAR TREK®

Named by TV Guide as the number-one cult show of all time, Star Trek has enthralled and entertained fans for more than forty years. Phrases from the original series have entered the popular vernacular. The show anticipated many current technologies. Star Trek has more Web sites devoted to it than the U.S. government. These are but a few examples of the impact this phenomenal franchise has had on our culture. In addition, Star Trek merchandise—anything from books to t-shirts to video games to DVDs—accounts for more than

$3 billion dollars in worldwide retail sales. Part of this incredible program are the Star Trek 2012 calendars, both out of this world.

- The next feature film, a sequel to 2009's enormously successful movie from J.J. Abrams, is due to be released June 2012.
- The multimedia program continues to be in demand: Star Trek Online was released in February 2010, and the publishing program is strong, releasing new titles each season.

STAR TREK WALL

JEFF FOXWORTHY'S YOU MIGHT BE A REDNECK IF®...

Aside from being the largest selling comedy-recording artist in history, a multiple Grammy Award nominee, and best-selling author of more than 26 books, Jeff Foxworthy is notorious for his You Might Be a Redneck If®... jokes. His other successes in television, film, and recorded comedy have earned him the respect of millions of fans. Jeff musters his best redneck humor to make these new calendars the best thing since NASCAR.

- In 2011, Jeff Foxworthy will be the voice of Handy Smurf in the movie The Smurfs and will voice Babe the Blue Ox in MGM's animated feature Bunyan and Babe.
- Jeff Foxworthy's first children's book Dirt On My Shirt was on the New York Times best-seller list; his newest release Hide!!! debuted in October 2010.
- His You Might Be a Redneck If®... calendars sell almost half a million copies each year.

PEARLS BEFORE SWINE

Nobody does daft, demented, and disturbed better than the Pearls Before Swine gang, and this posse is pulling it off perfectly for another year of twisted fun with these two all-new calendars.

- Pearls Before Swine appears in more than 600 newspapers.

- Pearls Before Swine has been nominated four times for Best Newspaper Comic Strip, winning the award in 2003 and 2006.
- Stephan Pastis was nominated for the Reuben Award for Outstanding Cartoonist of the Year in 2008 and 2009.
- When Pigs Fly, published in 2010, is the tenth Pearls Before Swine collection.

DAY-TO-DAY

Leapin' crocodiles . . . 2012 is one of those wacky years when we throw in an extra 86,400 seconds! But that just means one more day o' fun with Rat, Pig, Goat, the zeebahs, and crocs, and the whole crazy Pearls Before Swine crew. This calendar serves up their shenanigans every day (even the bonus one). Throw in color Sunday strips and spot art on each page, and fans are sure to jump for joy.

WALL

Get a load of The Ratty Bunch in all its goofy glory. This calendar features the Pearls Before Swine family (of sorts) in big and brightly colored monthly spreads. See Pig impersonating Bea Arthur, check out Rat quoting Benito Mussolini, and catch the crocs mistaking Zebra's new skylight for a television screen. And no self-respecting fan could go a year without a Pearls pun or two. Given that the original strip accompanies each image, "Dunk rye for me, Arch and Tina!" and "I do not like green ags and Hamm," will all make perfect sense come 2012.

GET FUZZY®

Feel a little Bucky coming on? The single-fanged Siamese cat is awfully hard to ignore, what with his ferret obsession, monkey phobia, hard-held opinions, and general talent for annoyance. Owner mild-mannered Rob and dim-but-sweet Lab-Sharpei mix Satchel bear the brunt of Bucky's schemes, stunts, and sharp tongue and manage to make the best of it. For the rest of us, each inter-species interaction invokes laughs as the three characters always find a way to make up for their differences and maintain their unlikeliest of friendship.

- More than 1.2 million Get Fuzzy calendars and 1 million cartoon collections have been sold.

BREVITY

The comic duo of Guy Endore-Kaiser and Rodd Perry combine their satirical tendencies with a minimalist illustration style to create a unique commentary on popular culture. Their cartoon panel, Brevity is a funny mishmash of current events, pop culture, and the just plain bizarre. A thief who regrets wearing his son's light-up sneakers during a heist, kids injured in a food fight at school on artichoke day, or a guy admitting he's never had plastic surgery—he's just naturally ugly—are but a few small yet hilarious samples of the bizarre world known as Brevity.

- Brevity is “laugh-out-loud funny.”
—Michael Price, co-executive producer, The Simpsons
- Brevity appears on such products as drinkware, clothing, framed prints, and home décor items.
- Brevity is read in more than 150 newspapers in the United States and Canada.

NURSES

Every day, nurses make a difference in the lives of others, whether making lifesaving decisions or simply making a bed more comfortable for someone. Because their work is never finished, these hardworking professionals deserve a much-needed break. These lighthearted calendars showcase the humor in this often-stressful line of work, because at the end of a long shift, nurses know that laughter is still the best medicine.

- The Bureau of Labor Statistics projects that more than 581,500 new registered nurse positions will be created through 2018, which would increase the size of the RN workforce by 22 percent.
- Nursing is the largest health care occupation, with more than 2.5 million registered nurses in the U.S., and the number is expected to increase to more than three million by 2016.

THE OFFICE

After reviewing his home movies, Michael Scott lamented that “there were only twelve minutes that I felt were worth taping.” Fortunately for fans of The Office, there are many more events worth remembering, and they're all included in this calendar. Jim and Pam are settling into marital bliss while raising their baby, Cece. Andy and Erin fill the will-they-or-won't-they void left by Jim and Pam with their sweet and awkward courtship. Darryl gets a well-deserved promotion upstairs. Who will replace Michael as Scranton branch manager? Will Holly make a comeback? Relive all these moments that every fanatic of The Office will want to keep on file.

- This calendar includes quotes from Seasons 1 through 7.
- Since its premiere on NBC in March 2005, The Office has established itself as a genuine hit, earning prestigious television honors such as the 2006 Emmy Award for Outstanding Comedy Series, 2006 Peabody Award, 2006 AFI Honor, and many others.

I'M THE ONLY HELL MAMA EVER RAISED (AND OTHER REAL KNEE-SLAPPIN' COUNTRY SONGS)

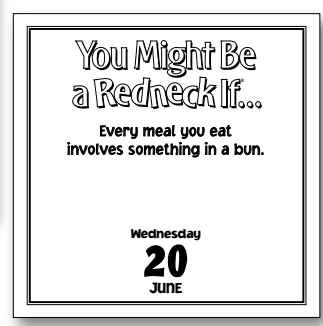

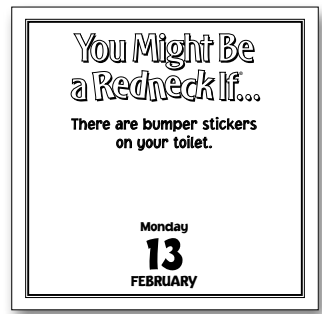

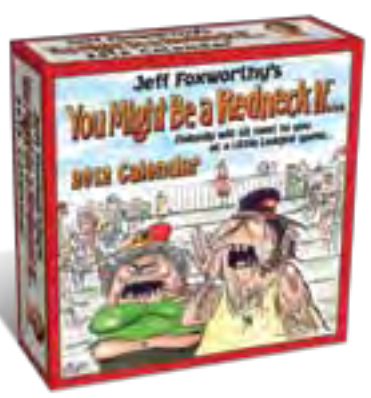

When it comes to gut-bustin', side-splittin', knee-slappin' song titles, country music tops the charts. This daily calendar features honest-to-goodness, genuine country song titles that are often wacky, sometimes biting, but always witty. Each page features a hilarious title accompanied by the name of the artist who first sang it or the writer who penned it and the story behind the song.

- According to Billboard charts, Taylor Swift's Fearless was the best-selling album of 2009.
- Country music is the top radio format among adults and reigns over all other music formats with more than 2,010 stations nationwide.
- ABC's live broadcast of the 2009 CMA Awards was the number one-rated program for all six half-hour blocks it aired, earning 17.2 million viewers. The show took home top ratings among all key adult, teen, and children demographics.

CLOSE TO HOME

John McPherson's ultra-popular cartoon panel Close to Home is bizarre, deranged, brilliant, and outrageously amusing. From the boy who gets fang implants to attract vampire-crazed females, to the mom-to-be who wallpapers her baby's room with its ultrasound photo, to the girl who keeps her python, Howie in her purse in case her dates act inappropriately, zany characters combine with John's twisted sense of humor to help make this cartoon one of a kind.

- Close to Home appears in more than 700 newspapers internationally.
- John McPherson has published twenty-two cartoon collections including his newest release, Women Are from Venus, Men Are Idiots.
- This is the seventeenth year for the Close to Home day-to-day calendar. Each page features a classic and colorful Close to Home cartoon.

CUL DE SAC

Cul de Sac is a comic strip that centers on the whirlwind daily adventures of preschooler Alice Otterloop, her neurotic, comic-loving brother Petey, her friends Beni and Dill, her parents, and her classmates at Blisshaven preschool. Cul de Sac combines witty dialogue, lush visuals and a gently scathing depiction of the absurdities and surrealism of conventional family life. This calendar features a cartoon a day from this fresh and funny strip.

- A sublime piece of work. — Publishers Weekly
- Cul de Sac Golden Treasury: A Keepsake Garland of Classics is the fourth collection from Richard Thompson.
- Richard Thompson's illustrations have appeared in U.S. News & World Report, The New Yorker, National Geographic, and the Atlantic Monthly.

LIÓ

The world of Lió is filled with the extraordinary—monsters under the bed, wild reptile pets, robot inventions, weird science—but it's all commonplace for this most uncommon grade-schooler. Mark Tatulli renders this pantomime strip in pen-and-ink style, giving the artwork a dark, spidery feel to match the strip's dark humor. Lió explores the twisted realm of a kid's imagination—at once bizarre, creepy, and fun.

- The National Cartoonists Society honored Lió and creator Mark Tatulli with a Reuben Award in 2009 for Best Newspaper Comic Strip.
- Tatulli's latest comic strip collection, There's Corpses Everywhere: Yet Another Lió Collection, was published in August 2010.

BABY BLUES

The pages of this calendar give you a front row seat to the action of the MacPhersons, a perfectly normal family with perfectly chaotic lives. Daryl and Wanda are deep in the trenches of childrearing and earning their stripes as parents to Zoe, Hammie, and baby Wren. The wildly popular Baby Blues comic strip brings not just a smile, but full-on laughs to fans familiar with the highs and lows of life with small children. For the MacPhersons—as with most families—there never seems to be enough days in the week. But the days there are can be just a little more fun with a full-color Baby Blues strip each day.

- Baby Blues appears in more than 1,200 newspapers, and has more than 40 million daily readers.
- AMP published Ambushed! In the Family Room: Scrapbook #26 in October 2010 and will publish Cut!: Baby Blues Scrapbook #27 in April 2011 and BBX: Baby Blues: The First Two Decades in October 2011.

ZITS

It might be challenging to find a Zits-less refrigerator door inside the 1,600 cities and towns that carry this truer-than-life comic strip. From Bangor to Barstow, from Fairbanks to Fort Worth parents are saying, "These guys must have a camera in my house!" Artfully exploring insecurities, societal pressures, and just plain teenage goofiness, Zits follows sixteen year-old Jeremy Duncan as he learns to navigate residential bi-ways and high-school hallways and the parentals, a.k.a. Connie and Walt Duncan, who are just trying to keep pace and find a little peace. Presenting a full-color strip each day, the Zits calendar will amuse both parents and teenagers with all-too-true embarrassing and entertaining tales of the teenage years.

- There are over a million Zits cartoon collections in print.
- Zits has been named Best Comic Strip of the year three times by the National Cartoonists Society and has also been awarded the prestigious Max and Moritz Prize as the Best International Cartoon Strip.
- AMP published You're Making That Face Again: Zits Sketchbook No. 13 in October 2010 and will publish Zombie Parents and Other Hopes for a More Perfect World: Zits Sketchbook No. 14 in March 2011.

STUPID HISTORY

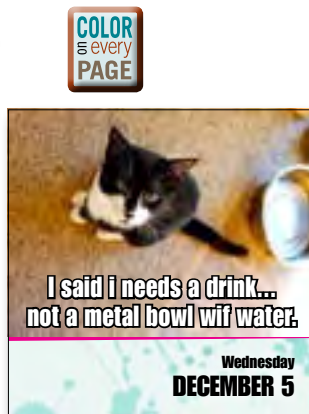

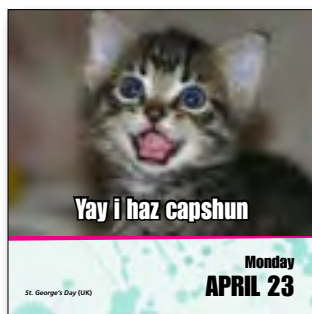

Silly, shocking, weird, and hilariously funny, the excerpts that make up Leland Gregory's newest collection of human stupidity are found on the daily pages of this calendar. The wacky stories, trivia, and factoids he shares are taken from his books Stupid History, Stupid American History, and his newest release "S" is for Stupid: An Encyclopedia of Stupidity—all guaranteed to make one ask the question, "Did that really happen?"

- Thomas Jefferson and James Madison were both arrested in Vermont in the spring of 1791 for the crime of carriage riding on a Sunday.
- The last cigarette ad, a commercial for Virginia Slims, was aired on The Tonight Show on December 31, 1970. Cigarette advertising was banned from both radio and television effective January 1, 1971.
- Leland Gregory has authored more than a dozen humor titles, including The New York Times best-sellers America's Dumbest Criminals and Stupid American History.

I CAN HAS CHEEZBURGER?

What started as an Internet sensation is now available as a calendar! The I Can Has Cheezburger 2012 Calendar is filled with comical cat images, accompanied by funny captions that are submitted by fans of the Web site. This calendar is a perfect gift for those who love cats as well as oddball humor.

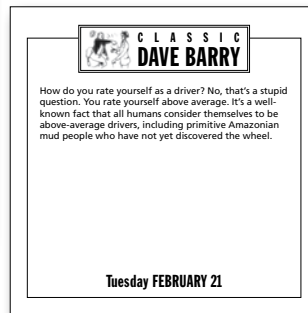

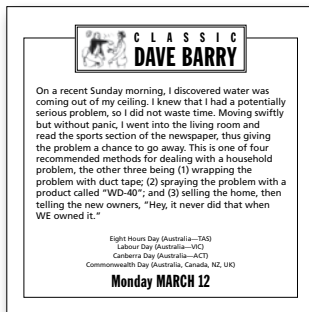

- Icanhascheezburger.com was created in January 2007, when the first image of a cat was posted with the caption, "I can has cheezburger?" Today, the site receives more than 16 million visitors per month.
- Ben Huh, CEO of the Cheezburger Network, says that the site receives nearly 20,000 fan submissions each day.
- With 360 million page views and 110 million video views per month, the Cheezburger Network is quickly becoming the new Internet media empire. More than fifty-five spinoff sites have been launched, including "I Has a Hotdog," "ROFLrazzi," and "FAIL Blog."
- Three I Can Has Cheezburger? books have been published. The first book spent thirteen weeks on the New York Times Best Seller list, and all three have been on the list.

CLASSIC DAVE BARRY

Is this calendar called Classic Dave Barry in the elegant, refined, well-proportioned sense? Maybe Dave resembles a Greek god. Or is it a nice way of saying Dave is not getting any younger? Whatever the title might mean, the fact remains that Dave was a syndicated columnist for 25 years in 500 newspapers, and the pages of this calendar feature his funniest bits from that column. Some current material thrown in for good measure to make sure no one will dare call Dave old.

- Dave's newest book of essays, I'll Mature When I'm Dead: Dave Barry's Amazing Adventures in Adulthood, was published in 2010.
- Dave's fourth book with co-author Ridley Pearson in the best-selling Starcatcher series, Peter and the Sword of Mercy, was published in October of 2009.

MURPHY'S LAW

Call it irony, call it a coincidence, or call it Murphy's Law—the popular adage that states if anything can go wrong, it will. For thirty years, the Murphy's Law calendar has provided laws and principles on things that go wrong. The First Law of Traffic: The slow lane you were stopped in starts moving as soon as you leave it. Bedfellow's Rule states that the one who snores will fall asleep first. It's a perfect calendar for those who frequently lament, "Why me?" It may not improve prospects, but at least it helps to explain the mishaps and mayhem in our lives with humor.

- Arthur Bloch is the author of seven Murphy's Law books, which have been published in more than thirty countries and have sold millions of copies.

THE OBAMA DIARIES

In her best-selling book, Laura Ingraham shares diary entries that mysteriously came into her possession and were purportedly written by President Obama, his wife, and administration officials. Among the hilarious (and satirical) “entries” that draw back the curtain on a White House that is not nearly so perfectly politic as it would have us believe, she offers commentary and examples that skewer the deification of Obama by an eager press corps, the Obama-led power grab by liberal elites, and the president’s ruinous policies. All told they tell a cautionary tale about the future of the nation.

- The book’s first printing was 269,000 copies.
- Laura Ingraham is the #1 New York Times best-selling author of Power to the People.
- Her nationally syndicated radio show makes her the most listened-to woman in political talk radio.
- She makes regular Fox News appearances and is the permanent guest host on The O’Reilly Factor.

PALINISMS

Sure, there may be fewer pronouncements from George W. for us to cringe at and mock mercilessly, but don’t fret. There’s a new language mangler, logic defier, and intelligence insulter in town. Sarah Palin may have quit her governor job, but she just can’t quit spewing ridiculous remarks that fuel her detractors (that is, thinking people) and firmly establish her as the darling of the conservative right, of teabaggers, and of suckers for a pretty face. Her most outrageous comments are collected here, culled from her interviews, speeches, posts, and tweets. They’re as funny as they are scary, and that’s somethin’ ya just can’t refudiate, dontcha know.

- The Oxford English Dictionary declared Palin’s “refudiate” the 2010 word of the year.
- The premiere of Sarah Palin’s Alaska drew 4.92 million viewers, which was TLC’s biggest series launch ever.

DUH!

Stupidity seems to be everywhere—government, prisons, schools, Hollywood, business—and, truth be told, most of us even have a questionable neighbor or two. Presenting a truly hilarious collection of the dumbest things ever said or done—like the guy who tried to rid his house of spiders with a blowtorch, but rid himself of a house instead; or the bank robber who used a holdup note written on the back of his own account balance receipt—this calendar makes known what we've suspected all along: stupidity is everywhere, and it's hysterically funny.

- Author Bob Fenster has made a name for himself in this category with nine popular Duh! calendars and four Duh! books.
- No one is spared from lampoon, as celebrities, village idiots, politicians, bosses, athletes, and regular Joes are all caught in incredibly stupid moments.

INSULT-A-DAY

We've been taught it's best to say nothing if we have nothing nice to say, but sometimes being nice is overrated. Then, firing off a one-liner or unleashing a long-winded diatribe is the only course of action—and so much more satisfying. An Insult A Day 2012 Calendar contains pithy proclamations from politicians, comedians, talk show hosts, and celebrities, as well as the best zingers from movies and television shows. When it's time to really speak your mind, any one of these well-placed barbs will get the point across.

- An Insult A Day is based on The 776 Nastiest Things Ever Said, a part of the best-selling Stupidest book series that has sold more than 4 million copies.
- Ross and Kathy Petras are also the authors of Unusually Stupid Celebrities and B Is for Botox: An Alphabet Book for the Middle-Aged.

WILD WORDS FROM WILD WOMEN

Wild Words from Wild Women is an entertaining, inspirational collection of hilarious quips, thoughtful bon mots, and unforgettable one-liners from notorious and famous women. Whether celebrity or CEO, poet or pioneer, author or activist, these women hold nothing back on motherhood, career, sex, love, life, friendship, and anything else women might discuss over a glass of wine. Both amusing and motivational, this is the calendar women turn to year after year for a walk on the wild side.

- This is the twelfth year for the calendar, which is based on the best-selling Wild Women series by Autumn Stephens.
- Features quotations from such notable women as Dorothy Parker, Mae West, Hillary Clinton, Sophia Loren, Dolly Parton, Simone de Beauvoir, and more.

THE SHOPAHOLIC'S DAILY CALENDAR

Bo Derek once said, "Whoever said money can't buy happiness simply didn't know where to go shopping." This calendar offers lot of ideas, presenting readers with top shopping sites on the Web as well as tips on shopping anywhere from the mall to the flea market, from a designer boutique to eBay. Add in advice from celebrity stylists, quotes and tips from designers, ways to be a smarter shopper, and the latest in shopping technology, and this calendar will be on every shopaholic's to-buy list.

- Two-thirds of online Americans say they also shop online, amounting to millions of online shoppers.
- A survey conducted by Unilever, the consumer products giant, found women on average would abstain from sex for a Prada, a Bisou-Bisou, or an Armani.
- According to a Gallup poll, Americans spend an average of $82 a day shopping for the six days following Thanksgiving.

THE OFFICE

It's nearly impossible to get through a day at the office without sticky notes—and a few good laughs. Luckily for us, The Office: Jokes, Quotes, and Anecdotes 2012 Calendar offers both. Each page features a funny joke, an amusing quip, an office-related quote from a movie or a well-known author, or hilarious office terminology. Just as importantly, each page is a sticky note so you can post the pages you want to keep in your cube or jot down a message and share the humor with a coworker.

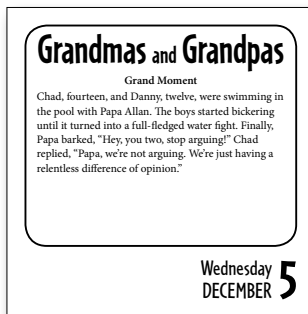

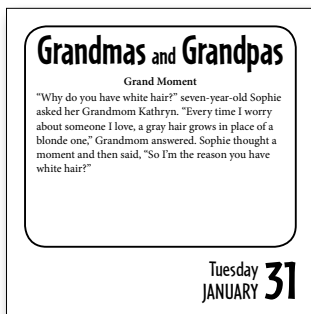

- This calendar's adhesive-backed pages allow workers to post a joke or funny office quip to any surface.
- The calendar features a wrap-around case that sits neatly on an employee's desk.

GRANDMAS AND GRANDPAS

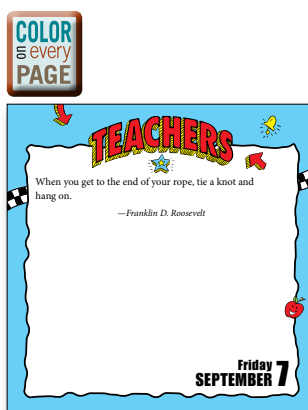

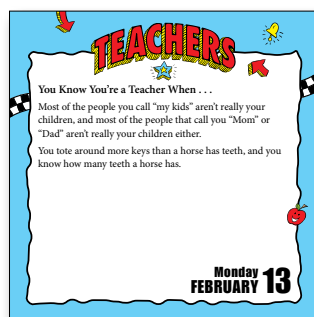

Grandparents are completely smitten with their grandchildren. Being a grandparent is the single most important and satisfying role in their lives. Each daily page of the Grandmas and Grandpas calendar speaks to this lively and loving group with an amusing anecdote, a useful tip, or a charming quote.

- By 2025, one of every four Americans will be a grandparent.
- Grandparents spend more than $50 billion annually on their grandchildren.
- “The grandparent life stage accounts for a multibillion-dollar marketplace ranging from products to services to educational investments. With grandparents today being more active and aware than ever before, the avenues for spending are varied and deep,” said Grandparents.com CEO Jerry Shereshevsky.

Here's a terrific calendar for that very special teacher. Each daily page features colorful art and an inspirational quote, valuable tip, or a running gag like one of these: Things I've Learned from Children, The Best Part of This Teacher's Day, Academic Anagrams, Jokes for the Lunch Lady, and Edlets: New Words for Educators. So “telesubbies” are substitute teachers who only show videos, and a “bookstache” is the facial hair added by students to every portrait in American history textbooks. Who knew?

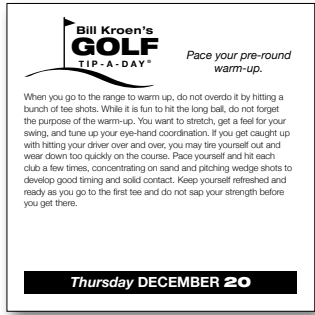

- According to the United States Department of Education, nearly 49.4 million students attended public elementary and secondary schools in 2010.
- Total elementary and secondary enrollment is projected to increase an additional 8 percent by 2018.
- Public school systems employed about 3.3 million teachers in 2010.

Golf professional and author Bill Kroen has helped golfers bring their game to the next level for more than twenty years with the Bill Kroen's Golf Tip-A-Day® calendar. Kroen's straightforward and practical advice benefits any player, from the beginner learning the fundamentals to the accomplished golfer who's looking for a tune-up. This calendar offers golf tips on driving, chipping, and putting techniques, as well as on the mental aspects of the game.

- Bill Kroen's Golf Tip-A-Day® calendars have sold more than 1.5 million copies.
- Bill Kroen is also the author of Golf Dynamics, The New Why Book of Golf, and So, You Think You Know Golf.
- A professional golfer since 1986, Bill Kroen has taught golf at top-notch facilities across the U.S. and has competed in many professional tournaments.
- Globally, golf is a $60 billion industry. There are more than 17,000 golf courses in the United States.

AMAZING BUT TRUE GOLF FACTS

Holes in one, perfect drives, and double eagles; it's the stuff golf dreams are made of. In reality, it's more likely nightmares of triple bogeys, slices, and hooks that end in the rough. Each page of this calendar recounts the best and the worst, with such stories as old-timer Tom Watson nearly capturing the 2009 British Open or the guy who started a fire when his golf club struck a rock, causing a spark that turned into a rolling blaze that burned twelve acres in Southern California in 2010.

- According to the National Golf Federation's golf participation study, there were 27.1 million golfers in the United States ages 6 and above in 2009.
- After an absence of more than a century, golf will return as an Olympic sport in 2016 and 2020.

CUTTING BOARD SAFETY

All cutting boards, regardless of the material, can harbor bacteria in nicks and gouges. Wash all boards with hot soapy water after every use, and occasionally soak or scrub them in a light chlorine bleach solution made with 2 teaspoons of bleach per quart of water. After soaking or scrubbing for several minutes, rinse the board thoroughly with fresh water, then rub with vinegar or lemon juice to remove any chlorine odor.

JOY OF COOKING®

Joy of Cooking is more than a cookbook. It's an indispensable kitchen guide that has taught countless millions to cook and whose hints, tips, and how-tos have averted even more cooking catastrophes than that. Perhaps most significantly, its classic and updated time-tested recipes have helped feed us for more than 75 years. Like all of the editions of this revered resource, this calendar—now in its thirteenth year—offers proven information that cooks can use, and its weekly undated pages provide favorite trusted recipes to enjoy.

- Joy of Cooking is the best-selling cookbook of all time, having sold more than 16 million copies.
- This 75th anniversary version returns to the original Rombauer philosophy of practicality, readily available ingredients, simple procedures, and cook times.—Wine Enthusiast
- The Swiss Army Knife of cookbooks—The New York Times
- The venerable cookbook gets an update that incorporates modern cooking (kid-friendly recipes, like burritos) and reinstates cherished classics. A must for any kitchen. —Life Magazine

DICTIONARY

That's what BP said

A variant of "that's what she said." Instead of referring to sexual connotations, it is used to refer to spending a lot of money, making a mess, or screwing up very badly. Arose after the 2010 BP oil leak in the Gulf of Mexico.

Gay 1: Man, I really humbled that last test.
Gay 2: That's what BP said!

Girl 1: That party was insane! It's going to take me all day to clean up this mess.
Girl 2: That's what BP said!

Gay: I'm paying tonight. The sky's the limit.
Girl: That's what BP said!

URBAN DICTIONARY

As CBS SportsLine says, "Urban Dictionary would probably make Noah Webster want to plummet off an unabridged overpass." Wordnik says, "Urban Dictionary is like Wordie's bad, older brother who taught it how to smoke and swear." What everyone from the New York Times to Slate magazine is realizing is that Urban Dictionary isn't your grandma's dictionary and just about everyone is using it. UrbanDictionary.com, a user-created online dictionary of modern slang, attracts nearly 200 million people a year and currently features more than 5 million user-defined words and phrases. The Urban Dictionary 2012 Calendar culls from the popular Web site to give readers each day one of the funniest, wittiest, and most provocative phrases.

- More than 200,000 people receive Urban Word of the Day via email.
- The Sydney Morning Herald says, "With ... mentions in Playboy and on CNN, Urban Dictionary has grown into something of a legend."
- The London Evening Standard says, "Urban Dictionary has become cult reading in many offices."
- MTV.com calls Urban Dictionary the "OED of our time."
- This is the fourth year for the calendar, which features all new words and phrases.

The Joy of Jewish Humor

TOTALLY, ABSOLUTELY, QUINTESENTIALLY JEWISH

If you think there's no such thing as Jewish humor, or if you think you could substitute Irish, Italian, or Polish for Jewish; a minister for a rabbi; or change Hetty Hinesley to Betty Smith and get a roar, switch to singing on open mic night. Some jokes are unequivocally, unambiguously, and uniquely Jewish! During a service in a wealthy synagogue, the rabbi got carried away. Falling to his knees, forehead to the floor, he said, "Oh G-d, before thee I am nothing." The cantor, not to be outdone, also got down, forehead to wood, and said, "Oh G-d, before thee I am nothing." Seeing this, Levy, a tailor in the fourth row, left his seat, walked through the aisle, fell to his knees, forehead to floor, and he, too, said, "Oh G-d, before thee I am nothing." With this, the cantor elbowed the rabbi and snuffed, "Look who thinks he's a nothing!"

CURSES! MAY YOU ...

What Jews may lack in fets, we make for in piels (mouths). The Jewish curse is delivered with a juicy, literate malediction that no mere obscene word could possibly convey. Like caviar, it must be savored, as the whole point is not to swear, but to prophesize:

- "May the lice in your shirt marry the bedbugs in your mattress and may their offspring set up residence in your underwear."
- "May your blood turn to whiskey, so that one hundred bedbugs get drunk on it and dance the mamzita in your belly button."
- "May your teeth get angry and chew off your head."
- "May you fall into the outhouse just as a regiment of Ukrainians is finishing a prune stew and twelve barrels of beer."

THE JOY OF JEWISH HUMOR

Marnie Winston-Macauley, the award winning author who brought us A Little Joy, A Little Oy, now brings pure joy! The Joy of Jewish Humor 2012 Calendar is filled with funny entries that are uniquely Jewish. Topics include "Totally, Absolutely, Quintessentially Jewish," "Never Satisfied," "Wouldjew Believe?" and "Two Jews, Three Opinions." It also contains quotes from famous Jewish celebrities, "Yinglish" terms and lingo, jokes, and anecdotes. From Eastern Europe to the Borscht Belt, The Joy of Jewish Humor is the gold star standard.

- Marnie Winston-Macauley is a columnist with Jewlarious.com, the premier Jewish humor and joke site.
- She is the author of more than twenty books and calendars, including the A Little Joy, A Little Oy series and Yiddishe Mamas: The Truth About the Jewish Mother.

LIVING LANGUAGE®

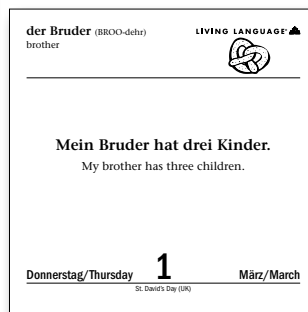

Whether working in Florence, vacationing in Paris, studying in Berlin, or just brushing up on Spanish, Living Language® makes learning a new language easy and fun. Each of these four calendars includes basic words or phrases accompanied by English translations. A phonetic pronunciation guide is provided for key words, and cultural theme pages related to each language are scattered throughout the calendars. An audio CD of basic phrases is also included.

- Living Language is the foremost name in the field of foreign language self-study, and since 1946, millions have learned to speak, read, and write a new language with its courses.

FRENCH

Cultural theme pages focus on important French artists from various periods: from the early cave paintings at Lascaux to the gothic-inspired etchings of Charles Méryon, from the Impressionists to the photography of Henri-Cartier Bresson. Biographies of famous artists such as Claude Monet, Auguste Rodin, and Pierre-Auguste Renoir are featured, among others.

GERMAN

Many items we use every day—blue jeans, aspirin, the automobile, and athletic shoes—are the work of German inventors. The cultural theme pages cover these well-known inventions as well as extraordinary inventions such as the X-ray, diesel engine, and the Saturn V rocket, which put the first man on the moon.

DON'T SWEAT THE SMALL STUFF

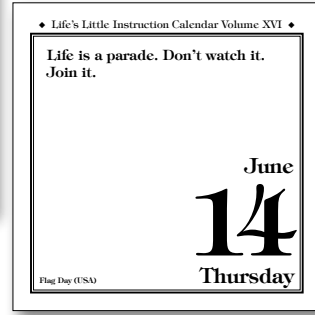

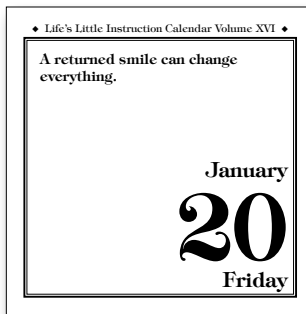

Sometimes life seems to have more ups and downs than the stock market. While we can't control the stock market, we can control the ups and downs in our own lives. In this calendar, a compendium of the Don't Sweat the Small Stuff books, Dr. Richard Carlson explains how to de-stress and uncomplicate daily living. Covering such areas as family, work, personal goals, and how we spend our free time, he helps us achieve a more peaceful, effective life. Through easy-to-implement strategies and tangible advice, readers learn how to treasure and enjoy the ups, while making it through the downs with humor, grace, and perspective.

- The Don't Sweat series of books includes ten popular titles, including four New York Times best-sellers.
- There are more than 25 million copies of the Don't Sweat books in print, and the original book spent more than 100 weeks on the best-seller list.

HOPE FOR TODAY

As Senior Pastors of America's largest church, Lakewood Church in Houston, Joel and Victoria Osteen emphasize the principles of the Bible, believing they affect and transform the lives of the faithful who trust in its truths. This belief prompted them to create the Hope for Today Bible in which they highlight Bible passages and offer insights, notes, and encouragements designed to help readers grow deeper in their walk with God. This calendar presents key words and accompanying supporting scriptures within its pages to provide uplifting and inspirational moments to every day.

- It's Your Time reached #1 on the New York Times Bestsellers List and has sold over half a million copies.
- New York Times bestsellers, Your Best Life Now and Become a Better You, combined have sold more than 6 million copies.
- Lakewood Church is attended by 43,000 adults each week, and more than 10 million more watch his weekly televised services.

SIGNSPOTTING

Signspotting is the ultimate collection of accidentally entertaining signs spotted around the world, including the Pennsylvania sign that warns: CAUTION PULLING ACTIVATES DOOR and the Chinese sign that helpfully notes: STEP TO THE MOON. BE CAREFUL!. Each day of this calendar presents a color photograph of an ironic, suggestive, bizarre, mislabeled, misspelled, or otherwise amusing sign. As US Today says, "Danger: These signs may cause excessive laughter."

- There are three popular Signspotting books, and a fourth is to be published the fall of 2011.
- This is the second year for the calendar.

CASH CAB

Unwary people enter the Cash Cab as typical passengers taking a normal taxi ride, only to be shocked when they discover that they're instant contestants on Discovery Channel's innovative game show! The Cash Cab drives contestants to their destinations, while the host asks general knowledge questions that start easy and get harder along the way. Now fans have the opportunity to answer trivia questions featured on the show with the Cash Cab 2012 Calendar. Each full color page features trivia from categories such as Literature, Geography, Arts & Entertainment, and Sports.

- Cash Cab picked up two Daytime Emmy Awards in 2010. For the third straight year, it won for Outstanding Game/Audience Participation Show. The show's host Ben Bailey won his first Emmy for Outstanding Game Show Host.

MEDICAL CARTOON-A-DAY

The Medical Cartoon-a-Day Calendar dispenses a daily dose of healthcare humor to tickle the funny bones of medical professionals everywhere. Now in its ninth year, this dependable seller continues to be just what the doctor ordered.

MEDICAL BLOOPERS

Real-life doctors, nurses, and other medical professionals share amusing anecdotes, medical-chart gaffes, and transcription blunders to administer a daily dose of humor. For example, when told to consume only clear liquids, one patient asked if vodka was acceptable. Another patient claimed not to know what type of surgery he'd had when asked by a nurse about an old surgical scar, exclaiming, "I was asleep when they did it!" This calendar fills the prescription for laughter—with no ill side effects.

- The more than 14 million healthcare workers in the United States continue to grow in number.
- Ten of the twenty fastest growing occupations are healthcare related.
- A reliable seller, the Medical Bloopers Calendar celebrates more than a decade.

WORD ORIGIN

The Word Origin Calendar offers language lovers entertaining insight into everyday words, clichés, expressions, and brand names. It also delves into the evolution of more obscure jargon to provide daily vocabulary lessons ranging from witty to thought-provoking to sometimes just plain weird for a year's worth of inspired lingo learning.

- A consistently dependable seller, the Word Origin Calendar celebrates more than a decade of delivering the roots of words.
- Learn the fascinating stories behind words and phrases, such as pound sign, Mafia, bait and switch, biohazard, kibosh, and more.

STRANGE BREW: BAGGING ON THE TEA PARTY

This calendar not only treads on the Tea Party—it stomps all over it. Featuring hilarious quotes, including the misstatements of actual Tea Party members like Rand Paul, Christine O'Donnell, and Carl Paladino; funny jokes, all at the Tea Party's expense, of course; jabs from liberal and even some conservative pundits; and examples of the ridiculously stupid signs seen at Tea Party rallies and protests, this calendar is for anyone who wishes to be liberated from the Tea Party once and for all.

- The Polling Unit shows that few Americans, just 14 percent, strongly agree with the Tea Party positions, while 40 percent view the Tea Party negatively.
- In the 2010 midterm elections, 68 percent of Tea Party candidates lost.
- The problem with the Tea Party movement, besides their almost universal rejection of dentistry, is that they want money for nothing and chicks for free. ... They want to call themselves teabaggers and people to keep a straight face. —Bill Maher

JUST THE RIGHT SHOE™

A woman can never have too many shoes, but when she can't get out and buy that must-have pair, Lorraine Vail's Just the Right Shoe™ calendar steps in. Lorraine presents a full-color photo of a shoe from her award-winning line of miniature collectibles along with the shoe's clever name and description on each daily page. The weekend pages feature her original shoe illustrations and are accompanied by an interesting fact or tidbit about shoes.

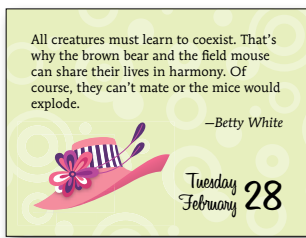

The calendar is packaged in a keepsake box resembling a shoebox and illustrated with Lorraine's original art.

- Lorraine's shoe designs have earned a dozen international and national collectible Achievement Awards.
- The real magic of beautiful shoes goes far beyond the color, style, and sexy shape of them, to the way they make you feel when you are wearing them.
—Lorraine Vail

THE HATBOX

The Hatbox features an irreverent, or inspirational quote on each page and is ideal for anyone who needs reminding that kindness and laughter are the perfect antidote to aging. This calendar is a must for those who enjoy life on a daily basis. It's packaged in a unique and functional hatbox that becomes a keepsake once the peelable label is removed.

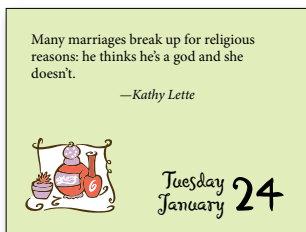

- Calendar is packaged in a keepsake box.
- There are almost 100 million consumers in the United States who are age fifty-plus.
- Boomers represent the vast majority of the work force and, therefore, the economy.

WOMEN'S WIT

For anyone who ever believed women are the weaker sex, this calendar may just change their minds. Bold, confident, and irreverent describes the famous women quoted in this calendar, and they come from a myriad of backgrounds: athletes, comedians, authors, musicians, and even politicians. They all have one thing in common—they're not afraid to speak their minds on topics such as relationships, money, fashion, fame, and much more.

- This ninth edition of this calendar contains nearly all-new entries.

HISTORICAL TWEETS

From the ancient tweets of @Plato and @Socrates to modern updates from @Napoleon, @Hitler, and @BabeRuth, Historical Tweets has all the answers to history's biggest questions: What happened to the dragons? What does "four score" mean? WWJT? Featuring a hysterical and completely made-up tweet each day, this is the perfect calendar for those who can only handle 140 characters' worth of history at a time (and don't mind breaking their history teachers' hearts).

- Historical Tweets is based on the blog historicaltweets.com, which attracts more than 13,000 visitors per month who look at an average of 185,000 page views. The site has more than 7,000 Twitter followers and counts Twitter king Ashton Kutcher as a fan.

- Historicaltweets.com has been praised by CNN, Time Magazine, Metro (UK), Washington Post, and Houston Chronicle.

CHOCOLATE

Times are tight, so cancel the cable, walk to work, and eat leftovers. But give up chocolate? Never! It's a small indulgence that weathers even the toughest times. This compact calendar is perfect for the chocolate-obsessed, with a full-color chocolate illustration or a fun chocolate fact, quote, or recipe on every page.

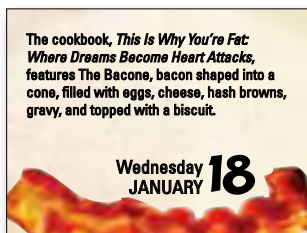

- According to market research firm Mintel, chocolate sales around the world have increased despite the recession.
- Manufacturers are continuing to launch new chocolate confections, Mintel reports.
- The UK chocolate market grew by 5.9 percent in 2009, while Americans purchased 2.6 percent more chocolate than in 2008.

BACON LOVE!

Nothing on earth compares to the mouthwatering aroma and lip-smacking taste of bacon. Each full-color page of this calendar features a yummy bacon recipe or a fun fact about this awesome meat.

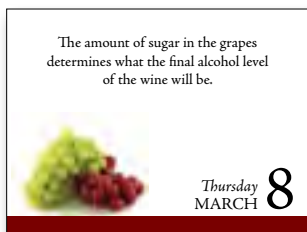

- Bacon consumers are still purchasing their favorite cut of pork at a steady rate despite increasing prices.
- According to research firm Mintel, the number of restaurant items that include bacon has grown 26 percent since 2005.
- "That smoky, meaty flavor appeals to our basic instincts. We're always going to be eating bacon," says Heather Lauer, author of Bacon: A Love Story.

WINE

What type of wine is best to serve with spicy food? How long does red wine need to breathe before it's consumed? Which type of white wine is the most popular? These questions plus many others are answered in this gem of a calendar. With full-color pages overflowing with fun vino facts and tidbits, this calendar is a perfect match for any wine lover.

- Today, there are more than five thousand wineries in the United States.
- Approximately ten thousand varieties of wine grapes exist worldwide.

B.F.F. BEST FRIENDS FOREVER

What's more engaging and awww-inspiring than photographs of adorable, smiling babies? Adorable, smiling babies interacting with cute furry, fuzzy, or feathered friends. Photographer Rachael McKenna combines the two universal favorites in twelve impossibly sweet portraits that perfectly capture the natural magnetism between beauties and beasts.

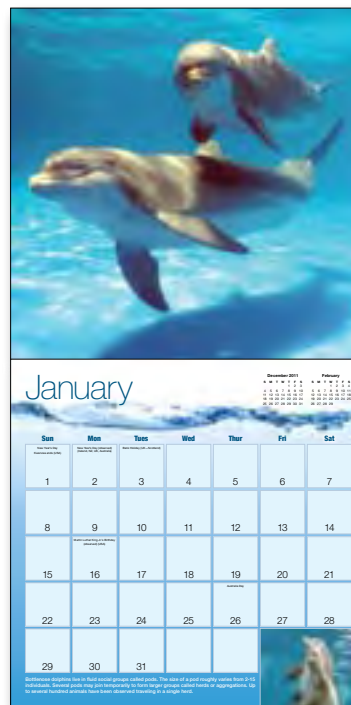

- As Rachael Hale, Rachael McKenna has sold more than 2.5 million books. Her latest, with Bradley Trevor Greive, is Why Dogs Are Better than Cats, published in October 2009.
- Rachael's endearing photos of babies and pets have been published on greeting cards, calendars, posters, and stationery products around the world.

SEAWORLD

With more than 25 million visitors per year, SeaWorld Parks are some of the most popular in the world. The founding principles of conservation, education, research, and entertainment make SeaWorld an ideal place for people of all ages to learn about, make memories with, and gain appreciation for some of the world's most fascinating wildlife. Each monthly spread of this calendar features a brilliant image of one of these awe-inspiring animals, along with text about the featured animal or fun facts about conservation, rescue, and education.

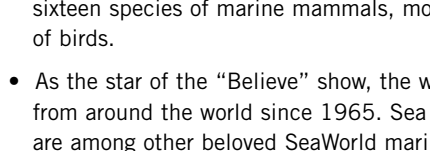

- SeaWorld was founded in 1964, and today it is home to more than 60,000 animals, including sixteen species of marine mammals, more than 430 species of fish, and more than 100 species of birds.
- As the star of the "Believe" show, the world-famous killer whale Shamu has been thrilling guests from around the world since 1965. Sea lions Clyde and Seamore, Dolly the Dolphin, and O.P. Otter are among other beloved SeaWorld marine-life that have entertained audiences for decades.

THE OFFICIAL NOBAMA COUNTDOWN CALENDAR

Barack Obama ran for president on a platform based on hope and change. Now, more than two years into his presidency, that hope feels a lot more like despair, and the only change is what's left in taxpayers' pockets after footing the bills for his tax-and-spend programs. America has realized that the emperor has no clothes. The next change will be his address in 2013—after Americans vote him out of Washington and back to Illinois. One and done. This calendar counts down to that day when he's sent packing. It's filled with quotes and photos that show his true colors and with uniquely American historically significant dates.

- Sixty million people voted against Barack Obama in the 2008 presidential elections.
- In the 2010 midterm elections, Republicans won 24 of the 37 Senate seats up for election and regained control of the House by picking up at least 60 seats.
- According to Gallup, Obama's approval rating dropped to 43 percent in October 2010.
- In a March 2010 USA Today/Gallup poll, 28 percent of U.S. adults called themselves supporters of the Tea Party movement.

ZELDA WISDOM

Make no bones about it—everyone's favorite bulldog is back, and she's ready to celebrate another new year with the Zelda Wisdom 2012 Wall Calendar. It's filled with her trademark straightforward advice and hilarious sayings, through which Zelda shares her life lessons with all of us. This sixty-pound bulldog proves we don't need to be rich, thin, or wrinkle-free in order to be successful. Whether it's life, love, or work, what counts most is dogged determination and a sense of humor.

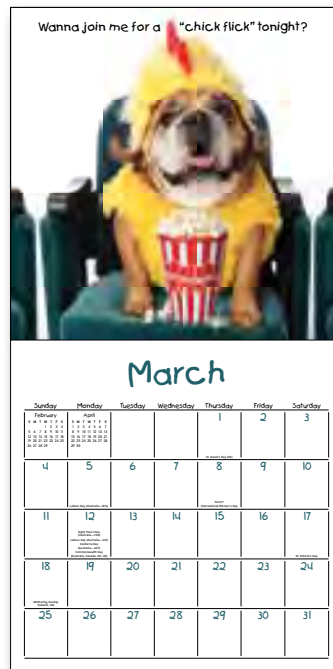

- The Zelda Wisdom international product line includes books, greeting cards, posters, calendars, figurines, magnets, cookies, apparel, and notebooks.
- A media darling, Zelda has been featured on The Oprah Winfrey Show, Good Morning America, The Today Show, The Martha Stewart Show, and CNBC's Power Lunch and in Ladies Home Journal and the New York Times.

ZOMBIES

The walking dead have never been so creepy, so disgusting, and so much fun. William Stout, production designer for the cult classic movie Return of the Living Dead, has created 12 new zombie images for this totally gruesome and completely cheeky calendar. Fans will relish such art as Leper-chaun Zombie, Back-to-School Zombie, and Easter Bunny Zombie, carrying its basketful of pastel-colored brains. Zombie factoids and important dates in zombie history are included on each full-color monthly spread.

- Pride and Prejudice and Zombies, the New York Times best seller, is soon to be a movie starring Natalie Portman.
- On July 3, 2010, Seattle, Washington, hosted the Red, White, and Dead Zombie Walk with 4,233 registered zombie walkers, making it the largest zombie walk in history as recorded by Guinness.
- George Romero's iPhone "App of the Dead," launched in June, 2010: Add zombie makeup to snapshots of friends and family and then shoot them in the head.

2012 Calendar • By Dan DiPaolo

HOME IS IN THE KITCHEN

The one thing that brings people together and stimulates good conversations and happy memories? Food, of course. And whether the meal's prepared there, consumed there, or both, the kitchen plays no small role. It's no wonder that this is where Dan DiPaolo draws his inspiration for this cooking- and dining-themed monthly calendar featuring chefs, waiters, and good food and wine.

STAR TREK®

Named by TV Guide as the number-one cult show of all time, Star Trek has enthralled and entertained fans for more than forty years. Phrases from the original series have entered the popular vernacular. The show anticipated many current technologies. Star Trek has more Web sites devoted to it than the U.S. government. These are but a few examples of the impact this phenomenal franchise has had on our culture. In addition, Star Trek merchandise—anything from books to t-shirts to video games to DVDs—accounts for more than

$3 billion dollars in worldwide retail sales. Part of this incredible program are the Star Trek 2012 calendars, both out of this world.

- The next feature film, a sequel to 2009's enormously successful movie from J.J. Abrams, is due to be released June 2012.
- The multimedia program continues to be in demand: Star Trek Online was released in February 2010, and the publishing program is strong, releasing new titles each season.

STAR TREK WALL

PEARLS BEFORE SWINE

Get a load of The Ratty Bunch in all its goofy glory. This calendar features the Pearls Before Swine family (of sorts) in big and brightly colored monthly spreads. See Pig impersonating Bea Arthur, check out Rat quoting Benito Mussolini, and catch the crocs mistaking Zebra's new skylight for a television screen. And no self-respecting fan could go a year without a Pearls pun or two. Given that the original strip accompanies each image, "Dunk rye for me, Arch and Tina!" and "I do not like green ags and Hamm," will all make perfect sense come 2012.

GET FUZZY®

Go big in 2012 with this wall calendar. Each month's art is a 12"x12" Get Fuzzy panel freshly redrawn and in full color. The entire original strip from which the panel was lifted is included too.

THE SAINT JOHN'S BIBLE

In 2012, those involved in the commissioning and creation of The Saint John's Bible will celebrate the completion of this magnificent project. The completely handwritten and hand-illuminated Bible was commissioned in 1998, and by the end of 2011, the last of its seven exquisite books will be complete. The nearly thirteen-year process was a labor of love for renowned calligrapher and illuminator Donald Jackson, who served as artistic director and collaborated with scribes, artists, and theologians to create the stunning lettering and gorgeously detailed illuminations using ancient methods, materials, and tools. This lovely hardcover calendar borrows a different one of the Bible's colorful and intricate illuminations for each of its weekly spreads. It includes a ribbon marker, and the textural cover features gold foil and embossing. It is a fitting tribute to a brilliant work of art that amazes as well as inspires.

- Comprising about 1,150 pages, measuring 15 7/8 inches wide by 24 1/2 inches tall, and more than 160 beautiful works of art, the Bible will eventually be bound between boards of quarter-sawn Welsh Oak in seven magnificent volumes.
- Original pages and reproduction prints from the Bible continue their international exhibition tour, with dates scheduled through early 2012.
- Reproduction volumes of the Saint John's Bible are on display at institutions worldwide, including Mayo Clinic (Rochester, MN), St. Martin-in-the-Fields (UK), Cathedral of Christ the Light (Los Angeles), and Regis College (Toronto, Canada).

THE COMPLETE RUNNER'S DAY-BY-DAY LOG

The Complete Runner's Day-By-Day Log inspires, educates, and spurs on every sort of runner. The seasoned marathoner or the beginner will find plenty of room to keep track of daily accomplishments and goals and to record race results. The month-at-a-glance pages are perfect for planning future runs and workouts. Marty Jerome's outstanding monthly essays, the useful tips and advice, inspirational quotes, and full-color images make this the best calendar/log for anyone who loves to run.

- There were more than 43 million runners in the United States in 2009, a 6.7 percent gain from 2008.
- According to Running USA, the number of finishers in the sport increased dramatically in 2009 as evidenced by a record 467,000 marathon finishers, a 10 percent increase over 2008, and 1.1 million half-marathon finishers, an incredible 24 percent increase.
- The number of individuals registering online for running events was up 15 percent in 2009 compared to 2008.

JOHNNY CARSON

Named the number-one TV icon by both TV Land and Entertainment Weekly, Johnny Carson was America's favorite entertainer and late night TV personality for three decades as host of the Tonight Show, which became a cultural tradition that spanned generations. This calendar features an excerpt from one of Carson's most memorable monologues or from one of his legendary skits each day, letting fans experience once again their favorite Carson moments.

 JOHNNY CARSON ***

The King of Late Night!

You know, I want to tell you. This was a steamer today. It was so hot today a Hollywood weirdo went into the frozen foods section of Ralph's and flashed Mrs. Paul.

—April 5, 1989

Thursday • JULY 5

 JOHNNY CARSON ***

The King of Late Night!

Some good news and bad news. The good news, it was announced on the news earlier tonight that President Reagan is going to be released from the hospital, I think, over the weekend and be back in the White House. The bad news is General Haig is holed up in the Oval Office with a four-year supply of SPAM.

Quilting

Block & Pattern-a-Day

Patterns on the back of pages

When life throws them scraps, quilters make more quilts.

Nearly 250 quilt block patterns and 65 all-new quilts make the 2012 edition of Accord's Quilting Block & Pattern-a-Day Calendar a feast for the eyes as well as for thimble fingers. The front of each page shows a full-color finished quilt or quilt block; the back provides the corresponding pattern complete with fabric requirements and finished sizes.

- The Quilting in America 2010 survey reveals an increase in annual expenditures on quilting supplies of 9 percent since the last survey in 2006.
- Even with the down economy, spending on quilting supplies has grown to $3.6 billion per year.
- The number of exhibitors at the 2010 International Quilt Market was up by 20 percent.

The Dictionary of Corporate Bullsh*t

A Year of Empty, Enraging, and Just Plain Stupid Office Talk

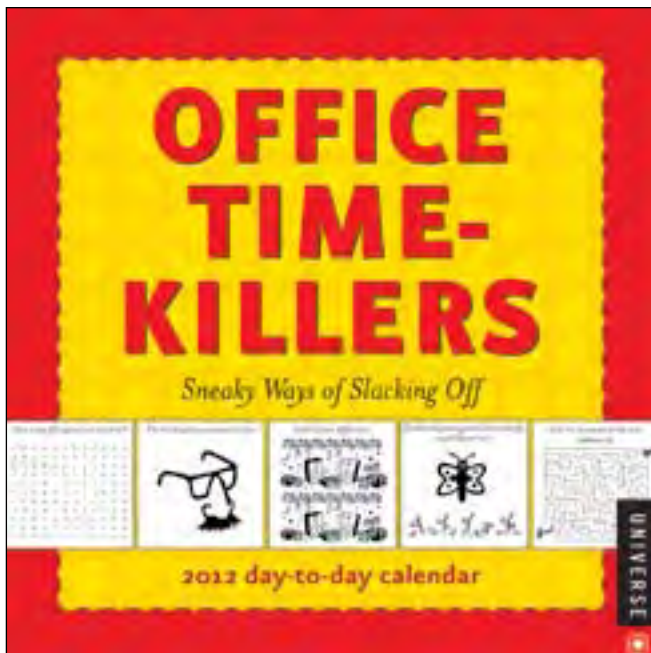

LOIS BECKWITH

Each day of this calendar explains the true, hidden meaning of one example of business double-talk and lingo after another.

Every "self starter" (someone who will have no supervision, guidance, or training) will learn to see the "big picture" (rationalization term managers use to justify their salaries) in order to meet "goals" (objectives that are either thrust upon you by your boss or that you are forced to write yourself, which will likely be used against you during your performance review) and climb the corporate ladder straight to the top.

- A great gift for anyone's daily slog through the corporate jungle.

Office Time-Killers

Sneaky Ways of Slacking Off

Millions of work hours are wasted every year by employees trying to figure out how to while away their day. Surfing the Internet is passé, and gabbing around the watercooler is nothing if not cliché. Now workers can spend the precious hours between 9 and 5 where they should—hunched over a desk, pretending to work.

With Office Time-Killers 2012, you can pretend to be scribbling notes when, in actuality, you're practicing your doodling skills! Filled with a year's worth of picture-starters, games, and simpler activities, this is the perfect way to let your mind wander, channel excess energy, or figure out what animal will appear once you connect the dots.

- The perfect gift for co-workers.
- Chock-full of enough fun to waste an entire year.

SUPER BOWL SUNDAY:
Our de facto national holiday.

Football fans gathered annually to feast, gamble, and watch athletic contests. Super Bowl Sunday is today's global village equivalent. More than 100 million people tuned in for the 2010 game. The U.S. Department of Agriculture says it's the second biggest food consumption day after Thanksgiving. Pizza leads the junk parade at the average party. Football fans in the crowd get caught up in the speed, strategy and skill of the game, whose winners get a big ring and a shot with the President. The northerners can be confused by the rules. Why is "holding" a penalty, but 300-pound men crashing into a slender ball carrier is not? Don't think about it. Just watch the cheer commercials and the halftime show and be happy.

True Blood™

HBO

Thanks to the invention of synthetic blood, vampires progressed from folklore to fellow citizens overnight. And while humans have been removed from the menu, many remain apprehensive about vampires “coming out of the coffin.”

Based on the popular Sookie Stackhouse novels by Charlaine Harris, the Emmy®- and Golden Globe®-winning HBO drama from Six Feet Under® creator Alan Ball mixes romance, suspense, mystery, and humor in an engaging series that immerses viewers in a world filled with vampires, werewolves, fairies, shape-shifters, and other colorful characters. True Blood 2012 features images of one of the hottest casts on television in some of their best moments, including Anna Paquin, Stephen Moyer, Ryan Kwanten, Alexander Skarsgard, Sam Trammell, Rutina Wesley, Nelsan Ellis, and others.

- Features images of the most talked-about cast on television from the show’s third season.
- Season 3 gathered stellar ratings throughout its 2010 run.
- Season 3 DVDs hit stores in December 2010, and season 4 is tentatively scheduled to air on HBO in summer 2011.

Zombies

The Year of Infection

DR. ROBERT TWOMBLY

Zombies 2012 is a pulse-pounding, suspenseful chronicle of the zombie apocalypse. Follow Dr. Robert Twombly's yearlong journey as he heads north, where—he hopes—the undead will be slowed by the colder climate. Encountering scores of the infected along the way, Twombly chronicles his experience through graphic drawings and detailed descriptions of zombies, along with terrifying tales of survival.

- A frighteningly funny new contribution to the massively popular zombie resurgence, Zombies 2012 will keep fans running for their lives all year long.

- Includes illustrations and text featuring the very best of zombie (after)life, including death, reanimation, deterioration, and, of course, bites!
- Zombies, and their brain-craving charms, have permeated every aspect of popular culture, from television to movies to books to flash mobs!

Mad Men

AMC

Based on the three-time Emmy® Award–winner for Outstanding Drama Series, Mad Men 2012 features striking images of the sexiest, smartest, most addictive show on television. Set in 1960s New York, AMC's stylized and provocative drama follows the lives of the ruthlessly competitive men and women of Madison Avenue advertising, an ego-driven world where key players make an art of the sell.

The show's mid-century modern aesthetic has had an enormous effect on today's sartorial fashions and home décor. This collectible calendar features dramatic images of the cast, including Jon Hamm, January Jones, Elisabeth Moss, Christina Hendricks, Vincent Kartheiser, and John Slattery from the series' fourth season.

- Fans respond to the authentic 1960s look and feel as much as the riveting storytelling and performances.
- Mad Men is one of television's most heralded and popular series, with strong ratings during first airings, DVR recordings, On Demand requests, as well as spectacular DVD sales.

Nurse Jackie™

New!

SHOWTIME

Emmy® Award-winner Edie Falco stars as "flawed" emergency room nurse Jackie Peyton, juggling rounds at All Saints' Hospital with a crumbling marriage, a steamy affair with the local pharmacist, and "an occasional weakness for Vicodin and Adderall to get her through the days." Wicked, heartbreaking, and funny, Nurse Jackie is one of Showtime's most popular new original series.

- Fans of The Sopranos, The Wire, Dexter, and Weeds, who appreciate edgy black comedies with sharp writing and fine acting, have made Nurse Jackie one of cable's newest hits.
- The controversial comedy won star Falco her fourth career Emmy® Award in 2010 and features acclaimed performances from Eve Best, Merritt Wever, Paul Schulze, Anna Deavere Smith, and Peter Facinelli.

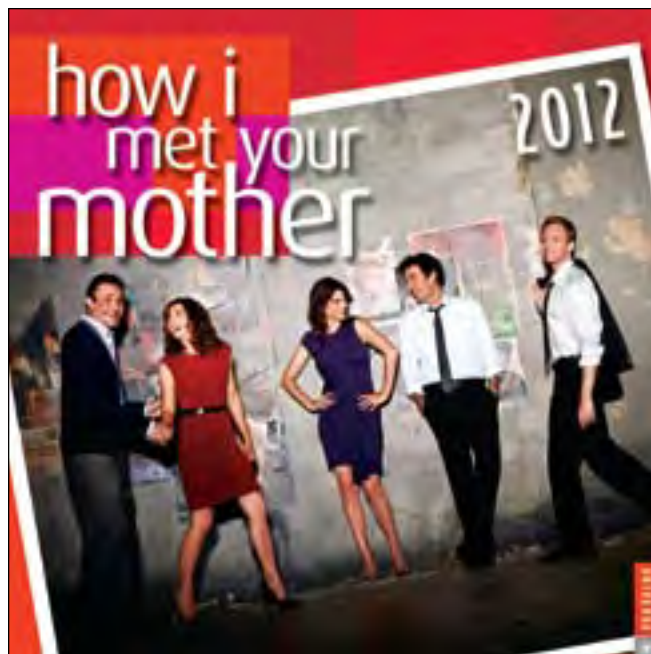

How I Met Your Mother™

20TH CENTURY FOX

The snarky stars and classic—"Wait for it!"—catchphrases of the CBS hit sitcom are back for a sixth smash season in this collectible 2012 wall calendar. Marshall, Lily, Robin, and Barney can't wait for Ted to meet the woman of his dreams, but will it ever happen?

- As one of the most quotable comedies on television, How I Met Your Mother remains #1 in its time period with all key male demographics and ranks #1 among all CBS series with adults.
- How I Met Your Mother continues to build on its already impressive audience, averaging more than 8 million viewers during the first three weeks of the new season. Season 6 DVD boxed sets will be released in 2011 just as the calendar hits shelves.

SpartacusTM

STARZ

Betrayed by the Romans. Forced into slavery. Reborn as a gladiator. Torn from his homeland and the woman he loves, Spartacus is condemned to the brutal world of the arena, where blood and death are prime-time entertainment. To survive, he must become more than a man, more than a gladiator. He must become a legend: Spartacus.

- Starring Andy Whitfield, Lucy Lawless (Xena: Warrior Princess), and John Hannah (The Mummy), Spartacus: Blood and Sand brought a modern, gritty take to the action and intrigue of the epic story and broke all viewership records for the Starz Network.

- Season 2 of Spartacus: Blood and Sand will appear in 2011, continuing the story where season 1 left off. DVDs of the original miniseries and season 1 debuted to strong sales in 2010.
- 2011 will also see a prequel, Spartacus: Gods of the Arena, exploring the origins and histories of season 1 characters and introducing a new gladiator, Gannicus. Spartacus 2012 features images from the miniseries, first season, and the upcoming prequel.

Vermeer

One of the brightest figures of the Northern Renaissance, Dutch painter Johannes Vermeer captured his subjects in everyday surroundings, but bathed in an otherworldly light and calm. Among the most visited works in museums across the world, Vermeer's paintings suggest stolen moments of afternoon stillness and inspire serene reflection.

- By posing ordinary Dutch citizens in the dramatic natural lighting of his studio, Vermeer created some of the most luminous and graceful portraits in Western art.
- Including The Milkmaid, Woman in Blue Reading a Letter, and The Astronomer, Vermeer 2012 gathers twelve of the painter's most well-known works from collections across the globe.

Frida Kahlo

Frida Kahlo 2012 brings together 12 of the iconoclast's most famous and well-loved works from museums and collections the world over. From her tumultuous marriage to Diego Rivera to the tragic accidents that kept her bedridden in constant pain, Frida Kahlo transformed the drama of her life into some of the boldest and most provocative paintings of the twentieth century.

- Arguably the most influential female painter of the twentieth century, Kahlo created a unique style mixing traditional Latin American Catholic imagery with Native American symbols and surrealist flourishes that remains controversial and inspiring nearly a century later.
- These 12 images represent some of the highest achievements in Kahlo's long career, including La Dama en Blanca (White Lady), Self-Portrait Dedicated to Dr. Eloesser, Diego on My Mind, and The Little Deer.
